- 2. Between 1 and 8 September, the Flak Kaserne (8461) was occupied to capacity by approximately 1,200 soldiers who, according to soldiers observed en route to and from the installation, included 60 percent wearing blue-bordered black epaulets, 20 percent red-bordered black epaulets and each 10 percent red-bordered red and blackbordered black epaulets. Training and a little vehicular traffic were observed.²
- 3. Between 1 and 8 September, the Finanzamt (8465) was occupied to capacity by 500 to 600 soldiers. Basic training without rifles was observed.
- 4. Between land 8 September, up to 200 soldiers from all installations daily participated in infantry training at the known training village in the Saale meadows. The AAA emplacement on the Moerlaer Hoehe (hill) was occupied as previously by 4 x 85-mm AA guns, 2 heavy machine guns and 1 rod antenna. The gun crews were quartered in 4 small and 2 large tents. The emplacement was still connected with the Flak Kaserne by a telephone line. The AAA emplacement on the southern slope of the hill west of Moerla was still vacant.4
- 5. On 6 and 7 September, an engineer exercise with bridge-building equipment was held on the southern bank of the Saale River near the Rudolstadt town area. 5
